Excused: Senator Kirkpatrick

PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Rev. Clark H. Scott, Pastor, Palm Bay Christian Church, Palm Bay:

O Lord, may we be grateful as we go about our work

For the diversity of our state and her people

For the freedom we enjoy, ever mindful of the cost of that freedom

For the wisdom and energy brought together in this room.

May we be mindful of many things as we go about our work

Mindful of the people represented here and their various needs

Mindful of our responsibilities in leadership to work to solve problems

Mindful of our individual limitations and aware of our collective strength.

May this day be one of productivity and joy.

Help us, Lord, to make the most of every opportunity. Amen.

PLEDGE

Senator Kurth led the Senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

Section 1. Section 319.35, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

319.35 Unlawful acts in connection with motor vehicle odometer readings; penalties.—

(1)(a) It is unlawful for any person knowingly to tamper with, adjust, alter, set back, disconnect, or fail to connect an odometer of a motor vehicle, or to cause any of the foregoing to occur to an odometer of a motor vehicle, so as to reflect a lower mileage than the motor vehicle has actually been driven, or to supply any written odometer statement knowing such statement to be false or based on mileage figures reflected by an odometer that has been tampered with or altered, except as hereinafter provided. It is unlawful for any person to knowingly bring into this state a motor vehicle which has an odometer that has been illegally altered.

(b) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly provide false information on the odometer readings required pursuant to ss. 319.22(5), 319.23(3), and 320.02(2)(b).

(c) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly possess, sell, or offer for sale, conceal, or dispose of in this state a motor vehicle with an odometer that has been tampered with so as to reflect a lower mileage than the motor vehicle has actually been driven, except as provided in paragraph (2)(a) and subsection (3).

(2)(a) This section does not prevent the service, repair, or replacement of an odometer if the mileage indicated thereon remains the same as before the service, repair, or replacement. If the odometer is incapable of registering the same mileage as before such service, repair, or replacement, the odometer must be adjusted to read zero and a notice in writing must be attached to the door frame of the vehicle by the owner or his agent specifying the mileage prior to repair or replacement of the odometer and the date on which it was repaired or replaced.

(b) A person may not fail to adjust an odometer or affix a notice regarding such adjustment as required by paragraph (a).

(c) A person may not, with intent to defraud, remove or alter any notice affixed to a motor vehicle under paragraph (a).

(3) Any motor vehicle with an odometer that has been tampered with so as to reflect a lower mileage than the motor vehicle has actually been driven may not be knowingly operated on the streets and highways of the state in such condition unless the certificate of title and registration certificate of the vehicle have been conspicuously stamped so as to indicate the displayed mileage is inaccurate and written notice has been placed on the vehicle as described in paragraph (2)(a).

(4) If any person, with intent to defraud, possesses, sells, or offers to sell any motor vehicle with an odometer that has been illegally adjusted, altered, set back, or tampered with so as to reflect a lower mileage than the vehicle has actually been driven, such motor vehicle is contraband and is subject to seizure and forfeiture by a law enforcement agency or the department pursuant to ss. 932.701-932.704.

(5)(2) Any person who intentionally violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

Senator Grant moved the following amendment which was adopted:

Amendment 2—On page 1, line 21, insert:

Section 1. Section 313.22, Florida Statutes, 1990 Supplement, is amended to read:

313.22 Vessel movements; penalties.—

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter 313 or chapter 314, each port may regulate vessel movements within its jurisdiction, whether involving public or private facilities or areas, by:

(a) Scheduling vessels for use of berths, anchorages, or other facilities at the port.

(b) Ordering and enforcing a vessel, at its own expense and risk, to vacate or change position at a berth, anchorage, or facility, whether public or private, in order to facilitate navigation, commerce, or protection of other vessels or property, or dredging of channels or berths.

(c) Designating port facilities for the loading or discharging of vessels.

(d) Assigning berths at wharves for arriving vessels.

(2) Each port may establish fees and compensation for the services described in subsection (1) that are provided by the port.

(3) Any vessel that unnecessarily delays in moving under an order to vacate or change position may be penalized in an amount not exceeding $1,000 for each hour or fraction thereof, plus 150 percent of the demurrage costs incurred by a waiting vessel, until the order is complied with. The penalty shall be imposed and collected by the port issuing the movement order.

(Renumber subsequent sections.)

Senator Bankhead moved the following amendment which was adopted:

Amendment 3—In title, on page 1, line 2, after the semicolon (;) insert: amending s. 319.35, F.S.; prohibiting the possession or sale of vehicles with tampered odometers; providing notice requirements; prohibiting the operation of vehicles with tampered odometers; providing that certain vehicles are contraband subject to seizure and forfeiture proceedings; providing penalties;

Senator Grant moved the following amendment which was adopted:

Amendment 4—In title, on page 1, strike line 2 and insert: An act relating to trade and commerce; amending s. 313.22, F.S.; providing that a vessel complying with an order to vacate or change position does so at its own expense and risk; providing that such orders may be made whether the facilities are public or private; prescribing additional reasons for which such orders may be given; providing penalties for failure to comply with such an order; repealing s.

Amendment 1—On page 2, between lines 21 and 22, insert:

Section 2. Section 401.271, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

401.271 Certification of emergency medical technicians and paramedics who are on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States; spouses of members of the Armed Forces.—

(1) Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty who, at the time he became a member, was in good standing with the department and was entitled to practice as an emergency medical technician or paramedic in the state remains in good standing without registering, paying dues or fees, or performing any other act, as long as he is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty and for a period of 6 months after his discharge from active duty as a member of the Armed Forces of the United States.

(2) The department may adopt rules exempting the spouse of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty from certification renewal provisions while the spouse is absent from the state because of the member's active duty with the Armed Forces.

Section 3. Paragraphs (g) and (h) are added to subsection (5) of section 404.056, Florida Statutes, to read:

404.056 Environmental radiation standards and programs; radon protection.—

(5) CERTIFICATION.—

(g) A certificateholder in good standing remains in good standing when he becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty without payment of renewal fees as long as he is a member of the Armed Forces on active duty and for a period of 6 months after his discharge from active duty, if he is not engaged in practicing radon measurement or radon mitigation in the private sector for profit. The certificateholder must pay a renewal fee to renew the certificate.

(h) A certificateholder who is in good standing remains in good standing if he is absent from the state because of his spouse's active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States. The certificateholder remains in good standing without payment of renewal fees as long as his spouse is a member of the Armed Forces on active duty and for a period of 6 months after the spouse's discharge from active duty, if the certificateholder is not engaged in practicing radon measurement or radon mitigation in the private sector for profit. The certificateholder must pay a renewal fee to renew the certificate.

Section 4. Subsections (5) and (6) are added to section 468.309, Florida Statutes, to read:

468.309 Certificate; duration; renewal; reversion to inactive status.—

(5) A certificateholder in good standing remains in good standing when he becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty without paying renewal fees or accruing continuing education credits as long as he is a member of the Armed Forces on active duty and for a period of 6 months after his discharge from active duty, if he is not engaged in practicing radiologic technology in the private sector for profit. The certificateholder must pay a renewal fee and complete continuing education not to exceed 12 classroom hours to renew the certificate.

(6) A certificateholder who is in good standing remains in good standing if he is absent from the state because of his spouse's active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States. The certificateholder remains in good standing without paying renewal fees or completing continuing education as long as his spouse is a member of the Armed Forces on active duty and for a period of 6 months after the spouse's discharge from active duty, if the certificateholder is not engaged in practicing radiologic technology in the private sector for profit. The certificateholder must pay a renewal fee and complete continuing education not to exceed 12 classroom hours to renew the certificate.

Section 5. Subsection (11) is added to section 482.111, Florida Statutes, to read:

482.111 Certificate; disposition of moneys received.—

(11) When a certified operator becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty, the renewal fee and requirement for obtaining continuing education are waived while the individual remains on active duty as a member of the Armed Forces. If the individual is designated as the certified operator in charge and no other certified operator is available to be placed in charge, an emergency certificate may be granted without a time or fee requirement until the certified operator is no longer on active duty.

Section 6. Subsection (8) is added to section 482.151, Florida Statutes, to read:

482.151 Special identification card.—

(8) When a special identification cardholder becomes a member of the Armed Forces of the United States on active duty, the renewal fee and requirement for obtaining continuing education are waived while the individual remains on active duty as a member of the Armed Forces.
